The Royal Bank of Scotland supports Sleekmade Property in Skegness development

The Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) has provided funding to family run property developers Sleekmade Property Co. Ltd t/a BSP Properties to purchase a site at Holly Road, Skegness for commercial development.

Sleekmade specialise in developments across the East Midlands, operating from their Nottingham base. Run by Steven Singh the recent emphasis of the company has been upon the development and refurbishment of acquired sites across the region. The site at Holly Road is 5.6 acres and the company has already secured major tenants in the form of MKM Building Supplies and others. The site has planning permission for further trade counters.

Funding for the purchase was provided by the Property Finance Team at RBS's Nottingham Commercial Banking Centre.

As a relationship bank, RBS is committed to helping customers be successful and achieve their business ambitions.

Mike Dodson, Senior Manager, Property Finance represented RBS. Mike commented; "Once again Steven and his team have acquired land in a commercially viable location. The attractiveness of the site is demonstrated by the signature of MKN as the first tenants and continues to add to an impressive portfolio of investments around the East Midlands."

"This is the latest in a number of developments that RBS has supported us in. Their can do approach makes a difference to our business model and allows us to react quickly to opportunities when they arise."
